Promotion of Multilingualism

The report of the Civil Society Platform for Multilingualism, which is the result of its latest and last meeting on March 30th, has been summarized in a press release that is already available on the EAFT website.

The Civil Society Platform to promote Multilingualism was launched by the European Commission in October 2009. Since then, 29 selected member organizations, active in the fields of culture, non-formal and informal education systems and media, interested in issues related to multilingualism with a trans-national or European-wide dimension have delivered a set of recommendations to EU policy makers in order to improve multilingualism policy on EU, Member State and regional level.

Updating EAFT members' data

In order to keep the EAFT membership list updated, we encourage you to send us again your postal address. As soon as we get your information, we will send you the invoice for the EAFT annual subscription.

Suggestions

The European Association for Terminology is a non-profit professional organisation for the terminology sector in Europe. It is designed to further plurilingualism through terminology, to provide a European platform for promoting and professionalising terminological activities and improving awareness of them, and to liaise and cooperate actively with relevant organisations, associations and institutions.

Do not hesitate to send us comments or suggestions that could help us accomplish our mission or that could draw our attention to any forthcoming event or activity. We would be pleased to include them in the next issue as well as in our agenda.
