Consulteca by TERMCAT

Consulteca is an online dictionary in progress. It gathers terminological files elaborated by TERMCAT deriving from queries addressed to Servei de Consultes ('Advice Service') and from specific researches carried out by our terminologists.

The dictionary aims to make specific terminological research available to users. Terms included in Consulteca are not included in any other dictionary.

The possibility to check the latest additions to the dictionary just by clicking the option displayed beside the alphabetical and thematic indexes is one of the key points (called new incorporations). Latest additions include files which have been elaborated during the last quarter year. Consulteca is therefore a dictionary in progress and is regularly updated with questions, contributions and suggestions made by Cercaterm users.

Interview with Mercè Lorente

Methodology for Terminology Work

A course in Methodology for Terminology Work (3rd edition in English) started on 21st October. This course is the third module of the Master online in Terminology offered by the IULATERM group, from the Institut Universitari de Lingüística Aplicada (University Institute of Applied Linguistics) of Pompeu Fabra University.

The course focuses on the most typical terminology work: terminographical work. It involves carrying out a terminological project, within the setting of the Communicative Theory of Terminology (CTT), respecting the principle of adequacy, according to which, terminological work must cover the professional needs that have given rise to it and the functions for which it will be used. To this end, all the phases of carrying out terminographical work will be studied through a series of exercises.
