General Assembly at the Terminological Seminar in Zagreb

As announced in the last issue, The Institute of Croatian Language and Linguistics and the European Association for Terminology (EFT) organize a terminological seminar under the title Applications of Cognitive Terminological Theories in Terminology Management in Zagreb on 27 and 28 September 2013.

The Seminar is open for registration. To register use the electronic form online by July 15. Other important deadlines are also to be found on the site.

The EFT General Assembly will be held on Thursday 26 in the afternoon in conjunction with the Seminar. Early September you will receive the formal convocation, the agenda and the pertaining documents.

Please let us know if you would like to include any particular issue in the agenda. Comments and suggestions will be more than welcome. We hope that you will be able to attend the GA.

EFT annual member subscription 2013

Invoices related to the EFT annual membership subscription 2013 have been sent during May. Please confirm your individual or institutional subscription by paying before 14 June. It is very important, for the sustainability of the Association, that all members pay their membership fee.

Late June we will publish the updated list of members in accordance with the subscriptions received in 2013. Remember that as an EFT member, you or your institution can:

- participate with an active role at the summits
- publish contributions in the Newsletter
- enjoy favourable terms at events or trainings organized by EFT
- get updated information about relevant events and other activities through the Newsletter and Twitter.

Seminar on Endangered languages, multilingual terminology and language policy supported by TERMNET

TermNet supports CIPL in the organization of the seminar on Endangered languages, multilingual terminology and language policy at the University of Stellenbosch, South Africa from 27 to 30 May.

The Permanent International Linguistic Committee/Comité International Permanent des Linguistes (CIPL) was founded in 1928 during the first international congress of linguists which took place in The Hague. It is a non-governmental organization aiming to assist in the development of linguistic science. It tries to further linguistic research and to co-ordinate activities undertaken for the advancement of linguistics. Its primary task is to promote mutual contact between linguists and to make the results of linguistic research known internationally.

More information on the CIPL website: <http://www.ciplnet.com/>.

TERMCAT publishes the motor racing terminology

The dictionary includes more than two hundred terms related to motor racing, with the denominations and their definition in Catalan and the equivalents in Spanish, French and English. Additionally, and coinciding with the 2013 Formula 1 Grand Prix at the Circuit de Catalunya, we have gathered about 30 terms on the leaflet Terms of the Formula 1.

Now you can also keep informed about TERMCAT activities by following them in Facebook.

TermCoord. Interview with Rodolfo Maslias

The TermCoord Team presents a new interview by their former trainee, Konstantinos Chatzitheodorou, with Rodolfo Maslias, head of the Terminology Coordination Unit at the European Parliament.

TermCoord publishes on its webpage interviews with prominent terminologists about their activities, projects and opinions about interesting terminological issues. These interviews have been prepared by trainees of the Terminology Coordination Unit or translators/terminologists of the European Parliament and made with terminologists who have an active contribution to this discipline.

Have a look in the TermCoord section of interviews Why is Terminology your Passion? to check out the complete interview.

Online Browsing Platform (OBP)

The ISOConcept Database is now the ISO Online Browsing Platform. Through this new platform, access is provided to up-to-date content in ISO standards, graphical symbols, codes or terms and definitions.

The platform also allows you to preview content before you buy, search within documents and easily navigate between standards. More than 10,000 standards are already available.

Suggestions

The European Association for Terminology is a non-profit professional organisation for the terminology sector in Europe. It is designed to further plurilingualism through terminology, to provide a European platform for promoting and professionalising terminological activities and improving awareness of them, and to liaise and cooperate actively with relevant organisations, associations and institutions.

Do not hesitate to send us comments or suggestions that could help us accomplish our mission or that could draw our attention to any forthcoming event or activity. We would be pleased to include them in the next issue as well as in our agenda.
